

Events Across the District are Helping New Mexicans Get Back to Work

Roswell, New Mexico – Congressman Harry Teague will continue his series of Job Resources Fairs at Eastern New Mexico University in Roswell on Wednesday, February 17th. This event will feature federal, state, local and private employers across a variety of sectors, including energy, healthcare, law enforcement, education and the armed services. Employers scheduled to attend include Roswell Regional Hospital, Pecos Valley Broadcast Co, FLETC, ENMU–Roswell, WIPP/URS/TRU Solution, Intrepid Potash, Mosaic Potash, Leprino Foods, U.S Border Patrol, and the U.S. Census , among others.

“Times are tough. It’s hard enough finding a new job, but it is impossible if you don’t know where to look or how to present yourself to employers,” said Congressman Harry Teague. “That’s why I have brought together local businesses, employers, colleges, and universities to host this job opportunity fair. New Mexicans want to get back to work, and I organized these job resources fairs to help them do that.”

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet with representatives from companies in the area with immediate job openings to fill. Experts will also be on hand to offer advice on career training, resume development and interviewing skills, as well as other benefits available and resources to aid in your career search. Smaller, half-hour breakout sessions focused on these issues will be held throughout the course of the event. The full breakout session schedule is below.

Over 300 job seekers attended Congressman Teague's Job Resources Fair last week in Los Lunas, which resulted in several confirmed new hires. The Congressman will also host similar Job Resources Fairs in Silver City on February 16th, and Las Cruces on February 22nd. These events are free and open to the public.
